Fine Arts Gallery Celebrates New Peachtree Corners Location R. Alexander Fine Art Gallery Moves to Peachtree Parkway

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, Sept. 11, 2014 – R. Alexander Fine Art Gallery recently relocated from its Peachtree Industrial Boulevard location in Peachtree Corners to a new venue on Peachtree Parkway and celebrated with an Open House.

Robert Harris, who along with his son Rob, operate the family-owned business, decided to add a new dimension to its business on Peachtree Parkway – a sculpture garden. A cascading waterfall with flowering gardens greet visitors at its new location. The gallery and gardens are now located at 5660 Peachtree Parkway, Peachtree Corners, GA 30092.

The Harris family, art dealers since the 1980s, has brought one of the largest collections of artwork to the Southeast from contemporary to established international and American artists.

“The art displayed in the gallery and gardens are beautiful, and we certainly are delighted that the Harris family have decided to relocate their business within Peachtree Corners,” said Mayor Mike Mason.

Harris said that the gallery maintains a collection of artwork including paintings, sculptures, photography and works on paper from American and international artists.

“This week we are excited to open to the Atlanta area public. Our exhibition New Roots: A Celebration of New Beginnings celebrates our relocation to Peachtree Corners,” said Robert Harris.
