

Peachtree Corners Participates in Great American Cleanup

The day drew nearly 40 volunteers from the Gwinnett community

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, May 15, 2014 – On Saturday, May 10, volunteers from around the city gathered to pick up litter and debris on city streets as part of the annual Great American Cleanup.

City leaders and citizens teamed up with the United Peachtree Corners Civic Association for the nation's largest annual community improvement program. The Great American Cleanup Gwinnett Challenge is hosted locally by Gwinnett Clean & Beautiful and part of the annual Keep America Beautiful's Great American Cleanup.

Cleanup Day By the Numbers:

39 - Number of Volunteers

6 - Miles of roadways cleaned

48 – Number of trash bags filled

575 – Estimate pounds of litter collected

7 – Number of illegal signs collected

For three months during the spring over 4 million volunteers and citizens across the nation work together to beautify neighborhoods, reduce waste, initiate recycling programs, plant trees and gardens and much more. The grass roots movement is spearheaded by Keep America Beautiful, and is designed as a way for citizens to work together to beautify neighborhoods, reduce waste, initiate recycling programs and much more.
