Town Center's Newest Eatery Now Open

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, Feb. 14, 2019 – City leaders and local dignitaries joined Salata Salad Kitchen owners and staff recently to celebrate the opening of the city's newest restaurant which is located at the Peachtree Corners Town Center.

The new eatery offers tossed-to-order salads and wraps, soups, organic teas and lemonade, breads and cookies. All fruits and vegetables are fresh and chopped daily in-house. Salad offerings include five salad bases, more than 50 toppings and 10 house-made, gluten-free dressings. A variety of flavored iced teas are available at the "Tea Tap" along with other beverages.

Located at 5210 Town Center Boulevard, the Houston-based business was founded in 2005 and has over 65 franchise locations in the U.S. The company held a ribbon-cutting event on Wednesday, Feb. 6 for its Peachtree Corners location.

Mayor Mike Mason, Councilmembers Phil Sadd, Lorri Christopher and Weare Gratwick, along with members of the Southwest Gwinnett Chamber and Peachtree Corners Business Association were on hand for the grand opening.

"We are delighted to welcome Salata Salad Kitchen to our city," said Councilmember Gratwick. "It is a great addition to our Town Center that, when complete, will feature a number of restaurants, retail shops and entertainment venues for our community to enjoy."

The 3,000 square-foot restaurant seats 72 indoors and has an 800 square-foot outdoor patio that seats an additional 32. The Peachtree Corners location marks the seventh location in the Atlanta metro area and 83rd for the company.

The following day, Feb. 7, the company held a celebration that was open to the public and donated 25 percent of its opening day sales to the Robert D. Fowler Family YMCA.
